Understanding and Exploring Restorative Practices for Families and Caregivers

Date and Time: Tuesday November 21st, 2023 from 6:30-7:30pm (virtual)

Community Partner: St. Leonard's Community Services

Intended Audience: Parents and Caregivers

Register for Free: <https://bit.ly/fwbcws19>

St. Leonard's Community Services School Based Programs (Restorative Approaches and Peer Power) are rooted in a strong restorative justice based communication skills foundation.

Working from prevention to intervention, these programs provide students with the opportunity to build positive peer relationships and expand their communication and conflict resolution skills that assist them in supportive processes to address conflict and repair harm. Referred by school administrators, the engaging Restorative Approaches team facilitators offer various restorative interventions that assist students in addressing conflicts and bullying with their peers, while also providing support and training workshops for teachers, school staff & parents, to help build the capacity of Restorative Practices in school communities.
